(See Rule 100(a) (9)). Embassy of Saudi Arabia

Submitted proposal for a comprehensive public relations plan

Drafted white paper on education reform in Saudi Arabia

Submitted summary of proceedings at day-long conference on the crisis in Yemen at Washington think tank

Drafted letter for possible submission to members of Congress that outlines adverse ramifications of reducing US support for Saudi-led military campaign in Yemen.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits your foreign principal(s)? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe fully.

I have given several media interviews and spoken at a number of think tanks. I also have a social media account (Twitter) in which I post Saudi related articles. I also write for two non-US based newspapers. I have also spoken at the Foreign Service Institute and contributed to a project at the US Department of Defense that seeks input from a wide array of subject matter experts. Although these activities could potentially benefit the foreign principal, it is important to note that these are the sorts of activities in which I have been engaged as a scholar on Saudi Arabia for many years and prior to my representation of the foreign principle. In addition, these activities are not coordinated with or cleared by the foreign principle. Just as importantly, my contract explicitly states that I am not authorized to speak on behalf or to represent the foreign principle in anyway. It is also important to note that I mention my consulting relationship with the foreign principle during all my media interviews and speaking engagements at US government agencies, think tanks and academic institutions.

⁵ "Political activity," as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act, means any activity that the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.
